Nobody is a Witch

by Anita Chamoli

"KILL HER, she is a witch," waving his stick in the air Baddy Wolf screamed. Dumbu Fox picked up a stone in his hand. Meeku Rabbit walked in. Chuchu Mouse too accompanied him.

Meeku said loudly, "Wait, have you gone mad? Harry Squirrel is old. One of her leg is broken. Why are you after her poor soul?"

"Meeku, they will not listen like this. Let us go to King Sher Singh. Probably, they have forgotten that nobody should trouble anyone," Chuchu Mouse avered.

"Meeku, you do not know. This old woman is a witch. First, she ate her people up. Not only my children but Dumbu Fox's children are also ill. She is responsible for it," Baddy Wolf blamed.

"Chuchu, you know she practises sorcery. With her spells an epidemic is spreading in Sundervan," informed Dumbu Fox.

Chuchu Mouse was angry, "What does Harry Squirrel eat?"

Baddy said, "What special will she eat? Barely fruits and grass, some leaves and seeds. What else?"

Chuchu Mouse again asked, "Has Sundervan fallen short of these things?"

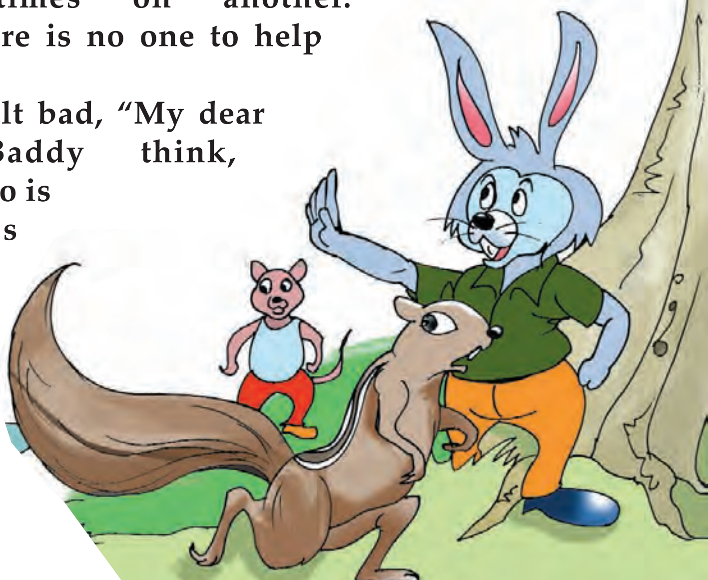

Baddy did not utter a word.

Dumbu left the stone he held and Baddy too threw away the stick.

Meeku said, "Look at Harry Squirrel. She is physically weak, poor and alone. Just think, poor Harry could not save her children who were gobbled up by Kalia Cobra. If Harry knew sorcery, would not she have saved her children?"

Chuchu Mouse laughed. He said, "I wonder whom have you heard. This poor thing does not even have a house of her own. She is sometimes on one branch and sometimes on another. Imagine, there is no one to help her."

Meeku felt bad, "My dear brother. Baddy think, Someone who is helpless herself and cannot do her own good, how will she save other's family. How will she even harm others?"

Harry Squirrel was inside the hollow of the tree. She had tears in her eyes. Baddy and Dumbu did not have any words.

"We made a mistake, Chuchu. You both are correct. We were carried away by Kalia Cobra's talks. Now we have understood. He is aiming at Harry. From today I will take care of Harry. I will just get some walnuts and other fruits for her," Dumbu offered.

"Come soon. We have to go to King Sher Singh too," Chuchu said.

Baddy asserted, "Why are you pulling Sher Singh in between. I said we will take care of Harry from now. We will see how anyone casts an ill eye on Harry."

Chuchu Mouse and Meeku Rabbit smiled. Harry now assured of her safety. ●

Latku Ghost

by Kumud Kumar

"HE... HE... he...," Latku Ghost would generally laugh awfully and sadistically.

Whoever got a glimpse of Latku Ghost, his eyes registered the horrific image. He would then only discuss the scene with one and all in Champakvan.

Latku lived on the pipal tree near the graveyard. When anybody passed from nearby the tree, he would hang down and laugh his characteristic laugh, 'hu... hu... hu... ha... ha... ha...' Many a people had seen him hanging and so they called him 'Latku Ghost'.

He was first spotted by Lambu Giraffe.

One day, Lambu was returning home after shopping. As he passed from under the pipal tree, he heard this 'hu... hu... ha... ha...' He screamed when his eyes fell on the ghostly figure hanging down.

Leaving his things, he ran as fast as he could. He barely saved himself banging with many a things.

All the Champakvan animals were amazed seeing him running with fear. They tried cheering Lambu Giraffe and told him about Latku Ghost. Now everyone was scared going that side.

Then one day, Blacky Bear of the neighbouring forest came to sell honey this side. On his way back, he passed from under the pipal tree. Latku Ghost hung down from the top in front of him. Blacky was stunned and almost fainted.

"Hurry up, put all your things and money as offering to the tree or I will blow off your head," Latku Ghost tried scaring him.

Frightened to the hilt, Blacky offered everything he had to the tree.

From then the animals of the jungle changed their path and did not take that path by the tree. Now Latku Ghost could only loot someone who unknowingly passed from there.

An incident happened, one day. As the summer holidays in school started, Meeku Rabbit came to Champakvan from town. He studied in a hostel of a big school in the town.

Meeku's father came to pick him up from the station. While on his way back from station, he too did not take the road leading to the pipal tree. When Meeku asked him the reason, father told him about Latku Ghost.

But Meeku could not believe this supernatural reason. He had read in science books that there were no ghosts whatsoever. He was taught the same by his teacher. Giving the reason that why is there just the ghost was a man, why not of an animal or bird.

This made Meeku sure that there were no ghosts at all and that it was just a superstition. He felt there was surely something wrong in the story of Latku Ghost. He planned a scheme to reveal the secret. Jumpy Monkey too joined him. Like Meeku, Jumpy did not believe in ghosts. Accordingly, they packed their sacks and proceeded towards the pipal tree.

Jumpy Monkey carried the sack on his back and reached the tree. He suddenly heard a sound, “Either leave your sack here or be ready to die.”

When Jumpy looked at the tree, he saw a skeleton of a man hanging from the tree. But Jumpy did not lose courage.

By then the scarry laughs ‘hu... hu... ha... ha...‘ were heard.

Hiding in the bushes Meeku aimed his catapult in the direction of the sound. First, a thud was heard and then somebody screamed from the tree, “O, I am dead.”

The skeleton of ‘Latku Ghost’ fell down. Jumpy Monkey moved to a safer place or he would have been under the skeleton. The skeleton broke into pieces as it fell.

Jumpy warned, “Who is the wicked one scaring everyone?”

Jumpy looked around. Kalu Jackal was hiding between the bushes and holding his head that was hurt.

The catapult stone had hurt his head and so the skeleton had fallen from his hands.

By then many other animals too came there. All were surprised.

Those who thought him to be a ghost, was just a man's skeleton which had broken into pieces.

The one who made scary noises was no one but Kalu Jackal. He had got this skeleton from somewhere and tied it with minute wires. The ends of the wires were tied to his hands. He would suspend the skeleton in the air under the tree with these wires frightening them and then looting them.

But Meeku and Jumpy's presence of mind and bravery revealed Kalu Jackal's cleverness.

Champakvan animals brought down Kalu from the tree and handed him over to the police.

The animals now got rid of Latku Ghost. Thanks to Meeku and Jumpy. ●

CHAMPU RABBIT and his sister Neetu were upset. Their friend Mantu Monkey was extremely unwell. Since yesterday when he has returned after games, Mantu had taken ill and

Ghost of the Dry Well

by Amrita Navin Satsangi

was repeating 'ghost…ghost' unconsciously.

"Champu, what has happened to Mantu?"

"Nobody knows but till yesterday he was ok," Champu replied.

"How do we know what happened with him?" Gotu Goat said.

"It seems he is extremely frightened. We separated from the playground to return home. Mantu took the shortcut which has the dry well on the way," Champu informed.

"Maybe, Mantu saw something near the well that was beyond his comprehension," Gotu guessed.

"Why don't we go near the well and find out," Champu suggested.

"Near the well? But I have heard there are ghosts," Gotu was nervous.

"There is nothing like ghosts. They are all stories. Come on, let us go and see," Champu suggested.

"I will not go. I am scared," Gotu replied.

"Come on, there is nothing to be so scared off." Everybody went to the dry well and stood on front.

"Who has suspended this rope inside the well?" Champu asked.

"It seems something is wrong here. Do we go inside and look?" Gotu asked.

"All of us will not go inside together. Gotu, you stay out and on sensing any danger, quickly shout for help," Champu said.

"Ok."

"I will go down," and Champu climbed down the well with the help of ropes.

"Can you see anything?"

"It is very dark."

I had given you my uncle's lighter yesterday. If you have it in your pocket, make use of it," Gotu shouted from outside.

"Yes, it is there."

"Light it and move forward."

After a little while sound of stones moving was heard from inside.

"Are you all right, Champu? Is all well?" Gotu was worried.

"Yes, I am all right. There is a small cave here and there is something inside it."

"Come on up, Champu. I will call someone."

"There is no need to panic, there is no one here. I will just come out."

Champu came out of the well after some time.

"What happened, Champu?"

"We should immediately go to Inspector Cheetah Singh."

The Inspector heard both of them and was surprised.

By evening he and elephant Jonny Havaldar made all arrangements.

At midnight a shadow was seen near the tree. It first looked here and there. Then got down the well through the rope.

After some time when the shadow came out, he had a big sack on his back.

As he emerged out, a flood of light was thrown on him. He was nervous.

"Hands up. If you try to move, I will shoot you." Everyone saw that it was Baddy Jackal, Mantu's servant.

Baddy collected all the stolen things here and at night wearing white clothes walked up and down the well so that taking him to be a ghost, no one would venture near the well.

But that day Baddy scared Mantu so much that he fell ill.

The next day when the real ghost came in front of everyone, they all laughed at their foolishness. They also praised Champu and Gotu for their bravery and intelligence. ●

First Class

by Dr Shriprasad

IT WAS a Sunday. Gilgil Squirrel, Seki Rabbit, Lomi Vixen, Supa Jackal and Dinu Porcupine of Bhalumal High School in the jungle went on a picnic.

All the students sat in a bus and reached the picnic spot. It was a beautiful place. They went out to see around. Someone was admiring the green fields, some body was swinging on the tree branches and some were enjoying the stream of water.

Supa Jakal was swinging and Gilgil Squirrel was watching her.

While everyone was having a good time, Lomi Vixen said, “Nowadays, I don't get to play much. Watching TV is a just no, no.”

“Why?” Seki Rabbit asked.

“Exams are round the corner. I am busy preparing for them.”

“I am also too worried about the exams. Hardly 2 months are left. The harder we work, the better result we will get.”

“You are right,” Dinu Porcupine said, “Result depends on hard work,” other students seconded.

“You people are quiet worried about the exams,” Seki Rabbit avered. “Have you come here to enjoy picnic or talk about the exams.”

Gilgil Squirrel asserted, “What is the harm of talking about exams even on a picnic.”

“But I have no worry,” Seki Rabbit said.

“You must have prepared well for yourself. That is why you are carefree,” Lomi Vixen quipped.

“What preparation? Seki asked. “I just study in the class and then play a lot. I am not worried about the exams.”

“Come on, everyone first have your meals and then play,” sweet voiced Porcupine teacher said that they will return back by 4 o’clock.

All of them opened their lunch-boxes and shared their food. The pickle brought by Gilgil was liked by everyone.

Supa Jackal shared her carrot pudding with everyone.

All of them roamed around the jungle after finishing their meals.

Talking about exams Lomi Vixen said, “Dear Seki, how will you give your exams without proper preparations. Even after coming from school we study at home and are still worried.”

“Actually, I have visited the 'Sitting Saint' with my grandmother. He blessed me saying that just write whatever you like in the exams, you will get a first class.

“My grandmother offered him a 100-rupee-note and one kg sweet. Then he blessed me.”

Seki Rabbit said, “Yes, he is a famous saint. He keeps sitting under the pipal tree day and night. That is why he is called 'Sitting saint'.”

Lomi Jackal started laughing. “This is not the way to pass an exam. No saint can make you pass an exam. Work hard, only that will pay,” everyone agreed when Gilgil Squirrel spoke.

It was time to come back home. Everyone boarded the bus and was back.

Two months later exam time came. All appeared for them.

When the result came out, someone passed in first class and someone with a second. But Seki Rabbit failed.

When Gilgil Squirrel and Lomi Vixen visited Seki, he was crying. He said, “I have been punished for my mistake. I did not work hard and believed the saint. I have lost precious one year.”

“Don't worry. A promotion test will be held after a month. Start studying from tomorrow itself. We will come to your house everyday to help you,” Gilgil Squirrel offered help.

Seki Rabbit worked hard and his friends helped him. He passed in the promotion exam. Now he realised that it was not any saint's blessing but hard work paid ultimately. ●

GAJJU ELEPHANT HAD CAUSED QUITE A CHAOS IN CHAMPAKVAN.

THERE WERE MANY PONDS IN THE JUNGLE. STILL GAJJU DRINKS WATER FROM THE RABBIT'S POND.

ON HIS WAY IF ANY RABBIT COMES, HE USED TO WRAP HIM UP IN HIS TRUNK AND THROW HIM AWAY.

SOME OF THE RABBITS EVEN USED TO GET CRUSHED UNDER HIS LARGE FEET.

THE ENTIRE RABBIT COMMUNITY WAS QUITE WORRIED DUE TO UNRULY AND ROGUE GAJJU.

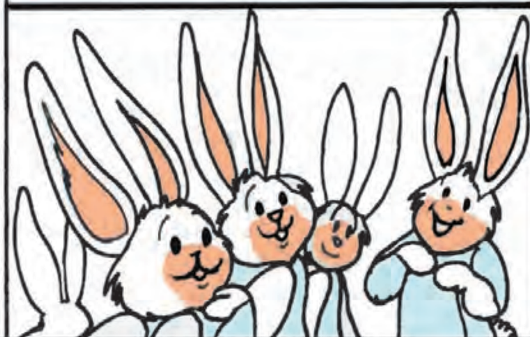

EVERYBODY WAS FACING A GREAT DANGER—
IF GAJJU KEEPS KILLING US UNABATED, THEN, ONE DAY NONE OF WILL SURVIVE AND WE WILL BECOME EXTINCT.

THE OTHER RABBIT SAID—
TO DRIVE AWAY GAJJU IS NOT OUR CUP OF TEA.

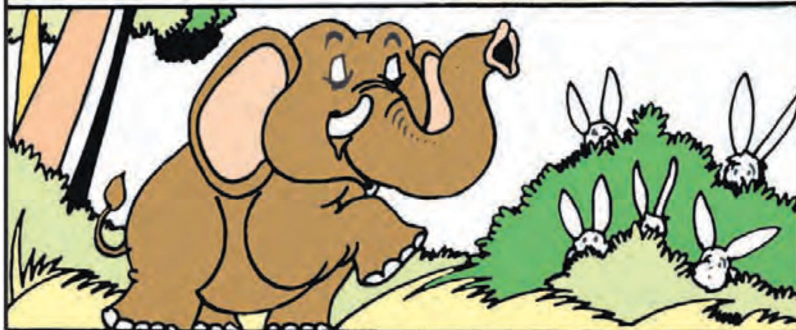

WE HAVE TO THINK OF A TRICK TO ACHIEVE OUR AIM.

CHAMPU, THE WISEST AMONG ALL THE RABBITS, SAID—
I HAVE A TRICK, BECAUSE OF GAJJU WILL NEVER DARE TO COME NEAR OUR POND.

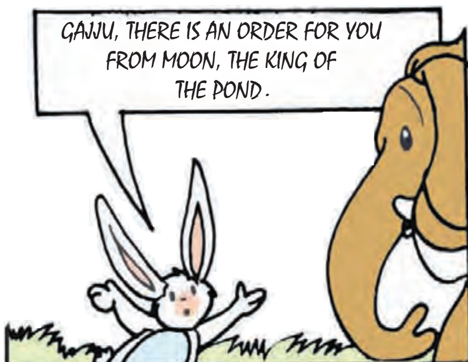

I ONLY NEED ONE OPPORTUNITY.

ALL THE RABBITS GAVE HIM THEIR CONSENT TO ACHIEVE THEIR AIM.

THE NEXT DAY, AS USUAL, GAJJU ARRIVED AT THE POND FREQUENTED BY RABBITS. ALL THE RABBITS TOOK COVER IN THE BUSHES.

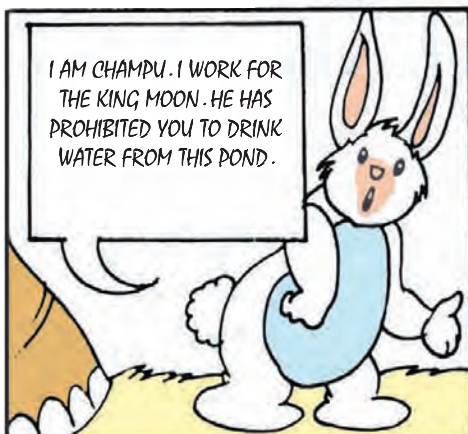

CHAMPU RABBIT MOVED FORWARD.

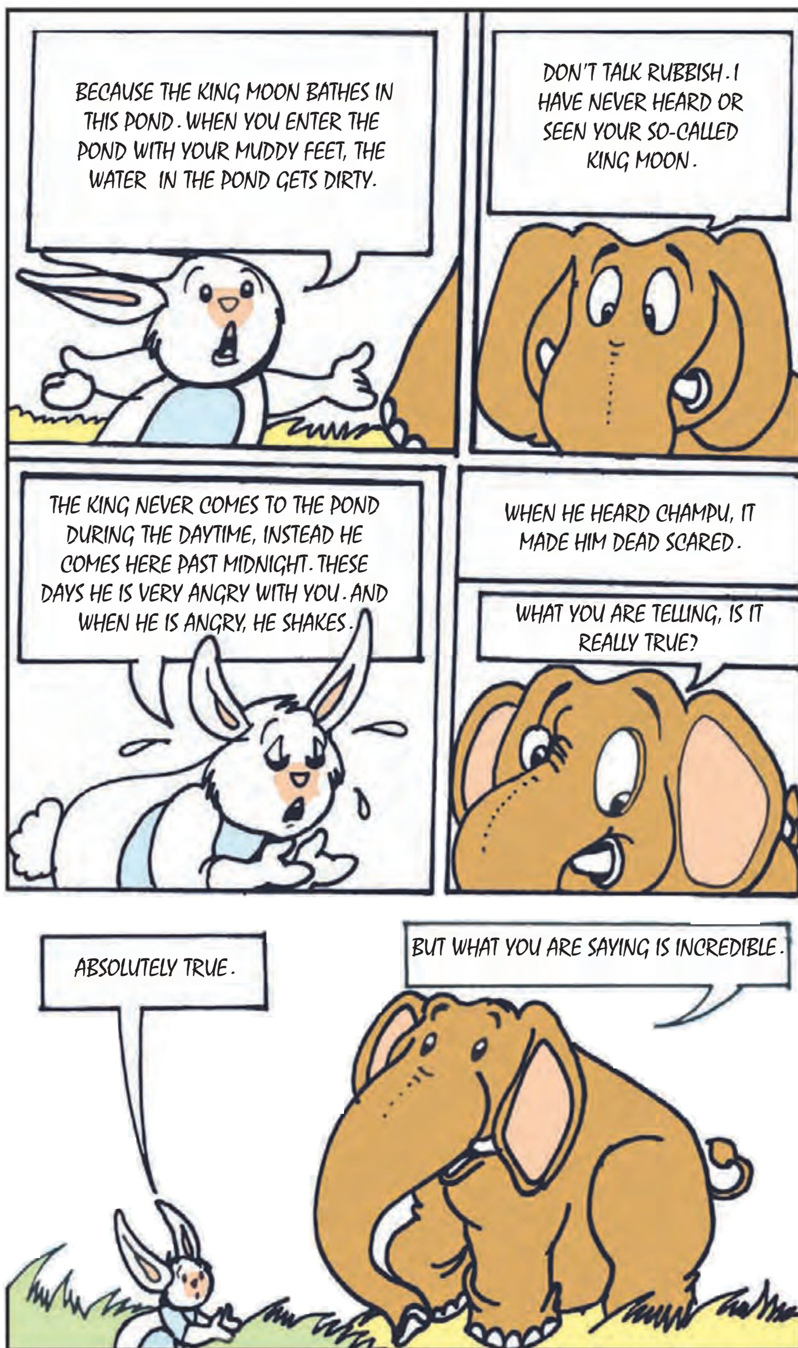

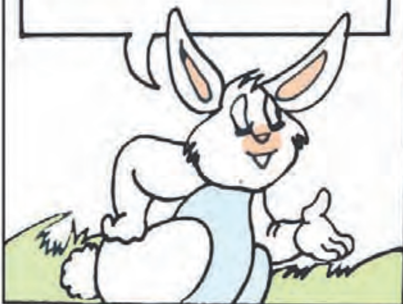

GAJJU WAS SURPRISED.

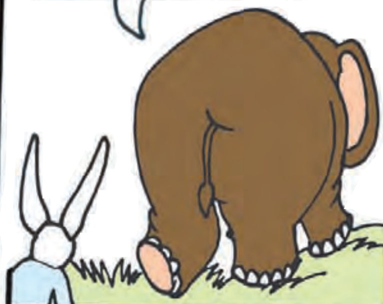

BECAUSE THE KING MOON BATHES IN THIS POND. WHEN YOU ENTER THE POND WITH YOUR MUDDY FEET, THE WATER IN THE POND GETS DIRTY.
DON'T TALK RUBBISH. I HAVE NEVER HEARD OR SEEN YOUR SO-CALLED KING MOON.
THE KING NEVER COMES TO THE POND DURING THE DAYTIME, INSTEAD HE COMES HERE PAST MIDNIGHT. THESE DAYS HE IS VERY ANGRY WITH YOU. AND WHEN HE IS ANGRY, HE SHAKES.

ABSOLUTELY TRUE.
BUT WHAT YOU ARE SAYING IS INCREDIBLE.

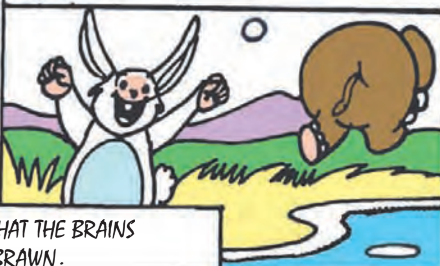

FINE, COME OVER HERE PAST MIDNIGHT, I WILL GET YOU INTRODUCED TO THE KING MOON.

FAIR ENOUGH, I WILL COME HERE PAST MIDNIGHT.

AFTER MIDNIGHT, GAJJU AND CHAMPU REACHED TO THE POND.
WHERE IS THE KING MOON?
HERE HE IS.

THE MOON IN THE SKY WAS SHINING TO ITS FULL GLORY AND WAS REFLECTING IN THE WATER.

THE COOL BREEZE WAS CAUSING WAVES IN THE WATER, AND MADE THE MOON'S REFLECTION SHAKING THE POND.

GAJJU APOLOGISED TO THE KING MOON AND FLED THE SCENE AND NEVER RETURNED TO THE POND.

The Secret of Ranga Jackal

by Dr Mamta Badola

JULIE, THE daughter of Luci Vixen was unwell since a month. Luci had tried all possible treatment for her. Sometimes she would tie an amulet around Julie's arm brought from Bhima Bear and sometimes she would make her drink and smell ashes but Julie was constantly becoming weaker and weaker.

Binny Goat had just arrived in the neighbourhood of Luci. She came to know about Julie's illness. When she came over to Luci's house to know about her daughter's health. She saw Luci crying, “What to say, Binny, somebody has apparently cast a magic spell on both of us. We are so upset since last many months.”

Binny said, “There is nothing like magic. This is your superstition.”

“What superstition? It is true. I will again go to Ranga Jackal saint tomorrow. He is the only one who can save us from trouble,” Luci said.

“Who is Ranga Jackal saint?” Binny asked.

"Oh, you have not heard his name. Anybody who goes to him, is free of troubles. He said that someone has cast a magic spell on our family and so Julie is not recovering from illness."

Binny asked, "But how will he treat Julie?"

"The saint gives everyone some ashes which when swallowed, removes all diseases and troubles."

Binny was highly upset hearing Luci's belief in superstition. But she knew that it was difficult explaining Luci.

Then taking a minute's time she said to Luci, "Dear sister, tomorrow when you go to Ranga Jackal's place, take me along. Even I would like to see him."

Luci agreed, "Yes, yes, why not?"

Next day, Luci reached Ranga Jackal's place with Binny Goat. Ranga Jackal was sitting under a pipal tree with his eyes shut. A long queue of distressed animals was lined up in front of him. Rinku Mouse cried, "My son Ratu is extremely ill. His fever does not come down."

Ranga Jackal spoke loudly, "Keep 101 rupees here and make your son drink these ashes thrice. He will be all right."

"As you say," and offering 101 rupees, Rinki Mouse made his son drink the ashes.

All the animals lined up came one by one, took the ashes and kept 101 rupees at his altar.

Now it was Luci Vixen's turn. She said crying, "I made my daughter drink the ashes you gave but her fever is not coming down."

Ranga Jackal said angrily, "I told you that till you do not get the magic spell, your daughter will not recover."

"But where do I get 1,000 rupees from?

"Come on, give me the all money that you have just now."

Luci gave him 500 rupees from her purse and came back with a packet of ashes.

Binny Goat was disappointed seeing innocent animals being fooled.

On the way Binny asked Luci Vixen, "Do all the animals become all right by the saint's ashes?"

"No, those who are under the spell of ghosts, do not recover completely but surely the ashes are magical."

Binny quietly flicked a pouch of ashes from Luci's packet and went home.

On coming home when she tasted the ash, she found it to be nothing else than crocin powder. Now she understood that when the animals drink the crocin powder, their fever comes down and they think it to be the saint's magic. If they do not recover then they think it to be the spell of some ghost and get fooled by Ranga Jackal.

Binny Goat rang up her friend Lambu Giraffe and told him the whole story. Lambu Giraffe was the inspector of Champakvan. With his entire team he raided Ranga Jackal's hideout to find that he had stored a lot of medicines which he gave them after listening to their ailment. He charged 100 rupees for a medicine that costed him 2-3 rupees in the market.

The next day itself news about Ranga Jackal came out in Champak Times. It was a front page news.

King Sher Singh declared a reward for Binny Goat. ●

Pumpkin Parade

by Ashesh

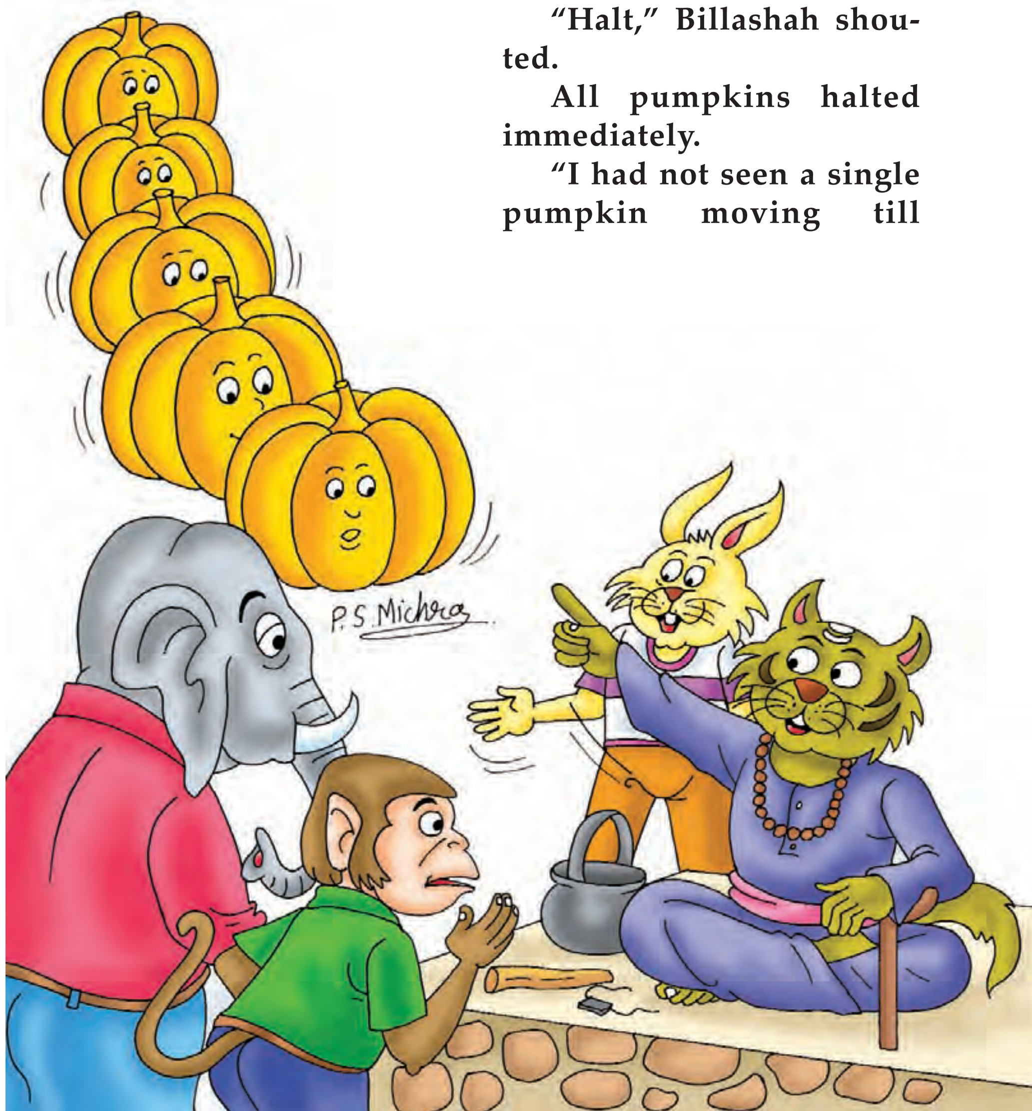

BILLASHAH shouted, "Pumpkin Parade start — one two one, one two one."

Ten pumpkins started walking in 10 rows. Every pumpkin was very fat. None was apparently less than 10 kg.

"Halt," Billashah shouted.

All pumpkins halted immediately.

"I had not seen a single pumpkin moving till today," Fatty Elephant said to Jumpy Monkey.

"Take this magical amulet and wear it in your neck and fast on every Tuesday. It just costs 100 rupees," Billashah said to Fatty. "Read the gospels and then see you will start jumping like Jumpy."

Fatty and all his friends bought the amulet by giving 100 rupees each.

"These pumpkins turned soldiers just by the touch of my amulets," and he screamed.

"Turn around," he commanded.

All pumpkins turned around.

"March ahead, one two one...."

Billashah would sometimes order them to turn left and sometimes right.

Last of all he asked them to relax and on the demands of the animals, started selling amulets to them.

"Even if the smaller birds and animals wear my amulet, they will not be killed by anyone," extending an amulet towards Meeku Rabbit, Billashah said.

Meeku looked at it and said, "I don't want this."

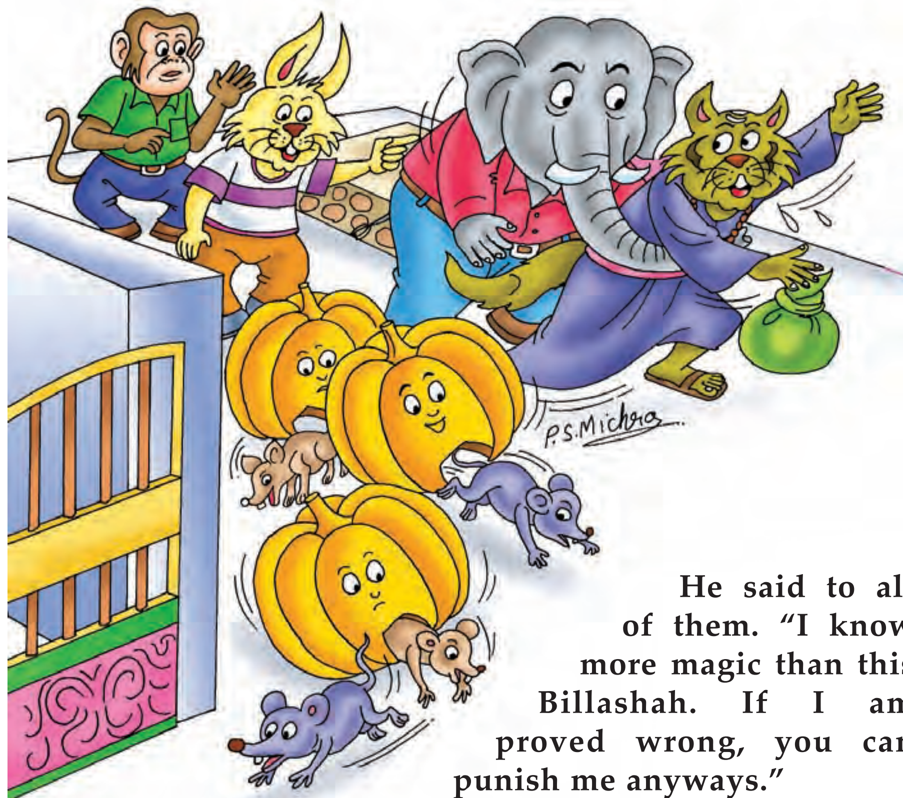

"Why don't you take it, Meeku? If you don't have money, I will give you," Reeku Rabbit offered.

Meeku got wild and screamed, "I don't want it for free also. Today I will dispense free wisdom to all of you."

All animals were taken aback.

Billashah shouted in anger, "All of you vanish right away or I will turn you into pumpkins. Then you will keep parading."

Meeku did not pay heed to Billashah's warning.

He said to all of them. "I know more magic than this Billashah. If I am proved wrong, you can punish me anyways."

All agreed. Meeku glanced at the high walls of the magic house and the sky visible over it. Then opening the gate in the wall, he said, "The gate is open, pumpkins, run..."

All looked. Big fat rats came out from under the pumpkins and ran.

Everyone saw. The pumpkins had holes at the bottom and were hollow from inside. They were dry and hard.

As Billashah tried to flee, Fatty caught him by his trunk.

"I cannot believe that pumpkins can walk. This brat had confined these rats in the 4 walls in fear," Meeku said.

Meeku was rewarded by all the animals. ●

SAVI MONKEY was running as fast as he could towards the old fort. Monu Jackal told him that at sharp 5 o'clock a yellow flower will flower in a plant on the hill mound. On eating the flower his son Avi will recover totally.

Avi had fever since last one week. Romi Deer

by Jayanti Rangnathan

Monu's Tricks

was the neighbour of Savi. Many times he told Savi to take Avi to Elephant doctor. But Savi had total faith in Monu.

Nobody knew where Monu Jackal stayed in the jungle.

One day, trying to save himself from Anjan Lion Savi fell into a thorny bush. He was saved by Monu Jackal.

Monu advised him to put the ashes of special burnt leaves and wood on his wounds and keep 2 kg of fruits and 1 kg of almonds near the well behind the banyan tree. Then he will be all right. Savi did as was told and became all right.

Since that day Savi had full faith in Monu. When his wife Ami had a stomach-ache, Monu called for 10 kg milk from Savi. The whole afternoon he worshipped with the milk and gave some prasad to Ami in the evening.

Ami recovered. That is why Savi was absolutely sure that Monu would cure Avi completely this time too.

As Savi reached the hill mound, he saw the yellow flower. As he was about to pluck the flower, he heard a voice, “Don’t touch this flower, it is poisonous.”

When Savi turned back and looked, Bhiru Tortoise was standing in front of him.

Savi said angrily, “I want this flower. My son will be cured on eating it.”

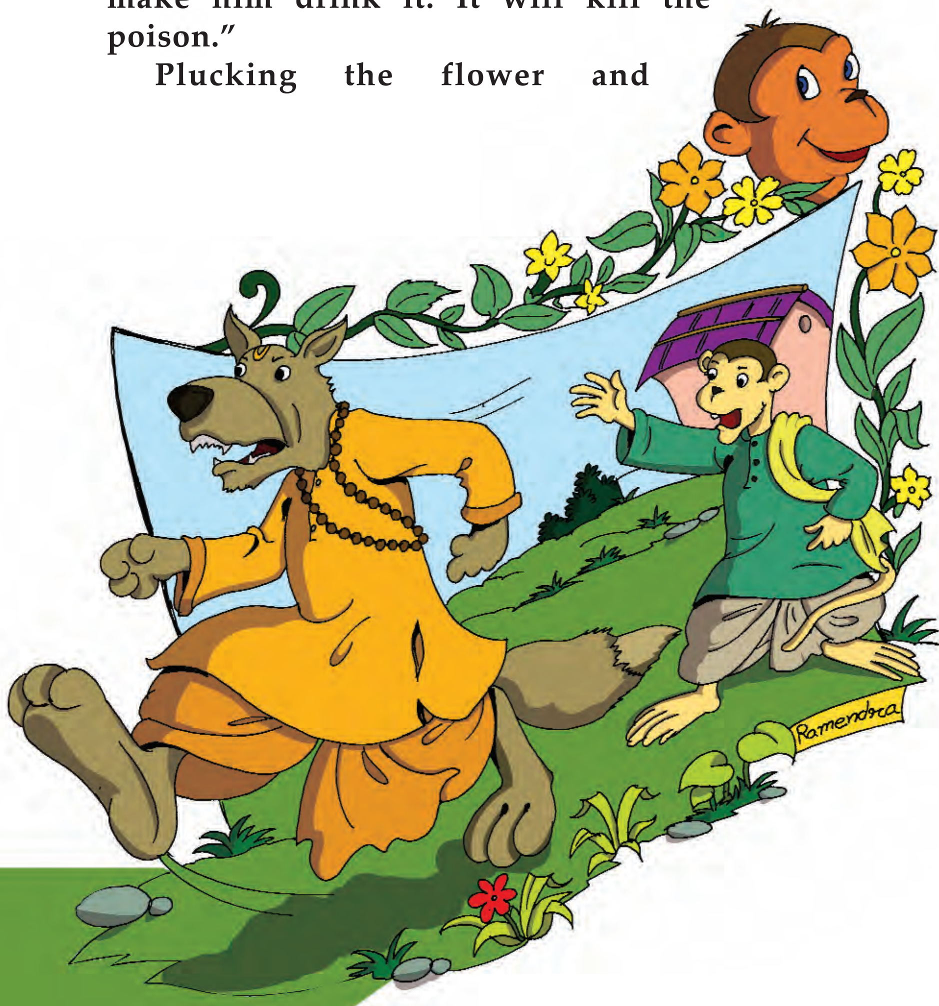

Bhiru Tortoise started laughing, “He will get cured by eating this poisonous flower? Surely, Monu must have told you. I had seen him on this mound yesterday. Dear friend, it is Monu's favourite job to loot people by spreading false beliefs. Last month I saw him having pudding made from 10 kg milk. Somebody like you must have given him milk."

Savi became cautious, "We have always found relief by giving what Monu has advised. This time also I will listen to him."

Taking a deep breath Bhiru said, "It is ok. If you want that your son may not live after eating the poisonous fruit, then it is your wish. I am giving you this green grass. If after eating this fruit your son starts gasping for breath and his eyes turn upside down, mix this grass in water and make him drink it. It will kill the poison."

Plucking the flower and keeping it in his pocket Savi said, “I will not require this grass but still I will keep it with me.”

And Savi soon returned home with the flower.

Monu Jackal lit a fire to try taking out the spirit from inside Avi. Seeing Savi he said, “Look Savi, before you make your son eat this flower, fill the dish kept in front of me with money. I will have to offer this money into the fire for your son to get well.”

After Savi put the money in the dish, he made Avi eat the flower. But lo, Avi started trembling as he ate it. His eyes turned.

Monu got scared at this. He quickly kept the dish with money in his bag and started to flee.

Savi immediately made his son drink the grass with water given by Bhiru.

Avi surprisingly got up with a thrust in his throat.

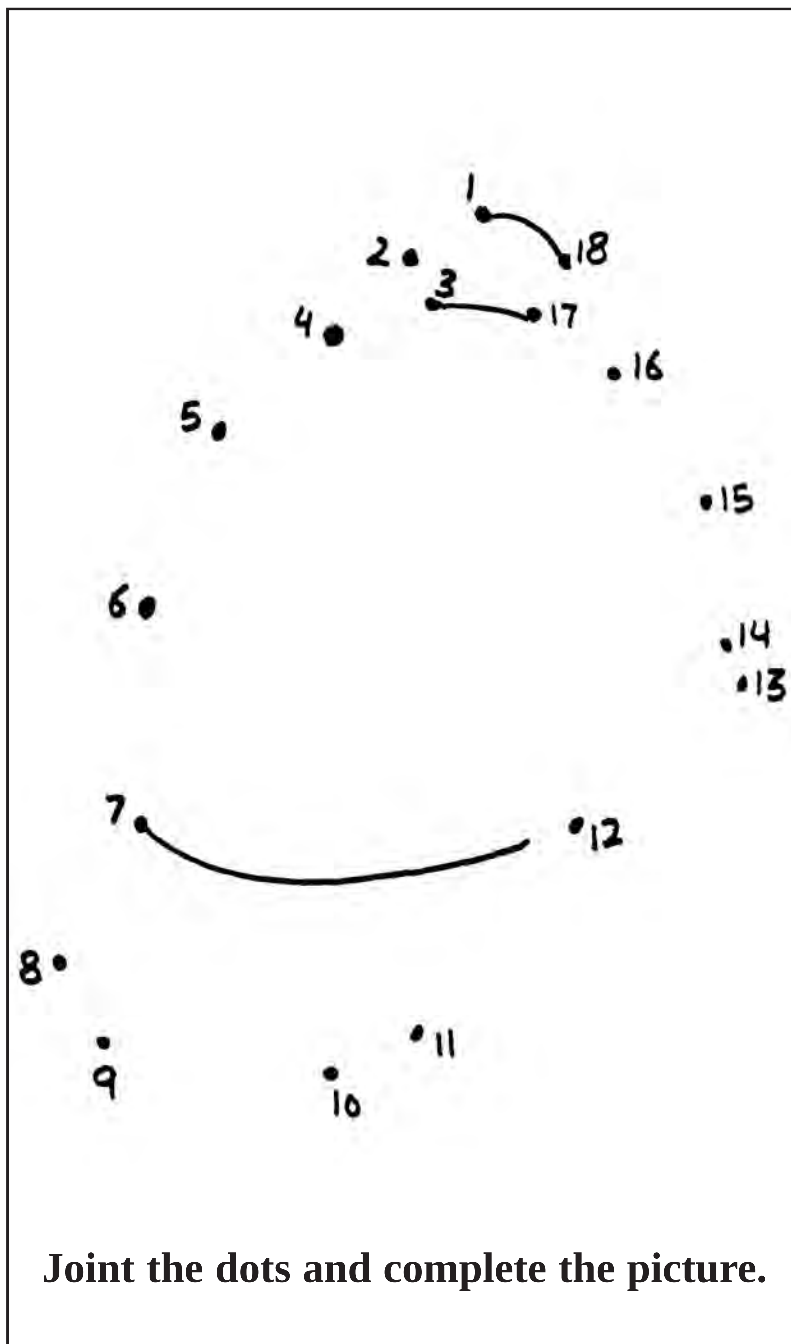

Savi was now sure that Bhiru was correct. Listening to Monu Jackal's advice he had made his son eat a poisonous fruit.

As Savi turned Monu's bag upside down, lots of money, almonds, silver utensils and lots more fell from it.

When Monu realised that his evil deeds were out in the open, he started to flee.

Savi shouted from behind, “Don’t be seen in the jungle again, Monu. We have all come to know that you loot everyone by spreading false beliefs.”

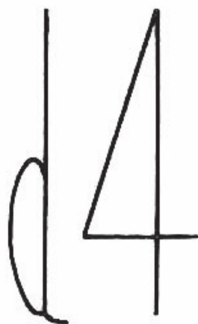

Since then Monu was not seen in the jungle again. ●

Black Cat

by Dr Amitabh Shankar Rai

KAJRI, THE black cat was sad. She said to her mother, "The blame of anything wrong happening with anyone goes on my head.

How can I help if I am black in colour?"

Mother consoled, "Don't worry. Others are foolish."

One day, a hippo came out from a river after bathing. Seeing Kajri passing from front, he shouted as if some disaster had happened. "Go to hell. You had to pass at this very time. Cleaning myself has all gone useless," and turning around he took the other path.

He must have barely walked a few steps when his foot slipped in the muck and he fell inside the slush.

He took out all his anger on Kajri, "You rascal, scoundrel, go to hell, I have fallen because of you."

How was Kajri to be blamed for that? But she kept quiet.

One day, she was crossing the road to board the school bus. Lagra Wolf was coming at great speed on his bike.

Sitting on a pipal tree, Angad Monkey was having a banana and throwing its skin on the road in front.

Seeing Kajri cross the road, Lagra applied brakes instantly. "O, the black cat has crossed my way. What an ill omen!" He could not balance the bike.

The banana peel came under his wheel. It slipped and the bike was on top of him.

"Arrey, the idiot cat has given me a drubbing," he could not stand up. His leg broke. His stunts had costed him heavy.

He was hurling abuses at the cat. "This black cat is responsible. Sinful creature. Let me get her once and I will teach her a lesson."

Many other animals too insisted that because Kajri had crossed his way, Lagra fell down. But Kajri was indirectly being blamed for it. It was everybody's superstition. How many of them could she answer.

Nobody questioned why Lagra was riding the bike in such high speed. Nobody ever objected to Angad throwing banana peel on the road.

Kajri too stayed quiet and away from all to herself. She would only go to school and come back home.

She would neither talk to anyone nor play with them. One person she would talk to was her mother.

One Sunday, early morning all the kids of jungle colony were going to the hills for a picnic.

Young ones of jackal, deer, rabbit, bear and other tomcats were screaming, “Come on, on the hills and we will play.”

The little bear and rabbit said, “We will have fun in the streams and waterfalls.”

The little one of the jackal was troubling his mother, “Mummy, daddy, when will you take us to the bus?”

“Wait a while, let the car come and your daddy will take all the children to the bus.”

Nobody offered poor Kajri. She kept sitting at home alone disappointed. Finally, her mother called her and said, “Go dear, get some bread and milk.”

All the little ones jumped into the car. Jumbak's father started it. Kajri came out and passed from there at that time to take bread and milk.

“Stop, stop, the cat has crossed our way. No untowards may happen to the children,” Jumbak's mother started shouting.

“Oh, could not you go after some time?” All the mothers— the jackal, bear, rabbit, deer started cursing her.

All stopped. First, a shoe was hurled from the car. Someone went first and then others followed averting the danger. This way they were delayed by half an hour. They missed the bus. The next one was after 2 hours. Everyone came back cursing Kajri.

Jumbak's father thought of watching TV in the meantime. He was taken aback on hearing a news. “Listen, today we are luckily saved.”

“What is the matter?” Jumbak's mother came running anxiously.

"Look, a breaking news on the TV! The bus that has just gone has fallen in the valley because of a rock having fallen on her because of landslide. The injured cannot be traced."

Jumbak's mother squatted on the floor desperately. "Good that our children are safe."

"That too because of Kajri," Jumbak's father said.

All agreed. The mothers ran and took Kajri in their arms, "You have saved our children, Kajri."

Kalu's mother said, "Who says black colour is bad omen? It is a superstition."

After 2 hours when everyone sat in the bus, all the mothers lifted Kajri and made her sit in the car. "We will never be able to pay back your favour. Please forgive us dear."

Kajri had tears of happiness in her eyes. ●

Magical Words

by Kumud Kumar

KALU JACKAL was murmuring to himself, "Agram, Bagram, bagram boo..."

"Kalu brother, what are you murmuring?" Cheeku Rabbit asked.

"I am not murmuring. These are magical words. This controls big and powerful people, Cheeku friend."

In fact, Kalu Jackal had met the magician Lampat Baba a few days back who taught him the magical words by which he could control others.

Kalu Jackal rote them by heart. He wanted to test these words on Fatty Elephant as the elephant was stronger to him and more intelligent too.

Kalu was searching for Fatty in the jungle when he saw Fatty amongst a grove of trees.

"Look Cheeku, how I take Fatty in my control."

"Well, show me the magic of your magical words."

Both Kalu and Cheeku went to Fatty and recited his magical words. "Agram, bagram, bagram, boo..."

He repeated these words thrice hurriedly.

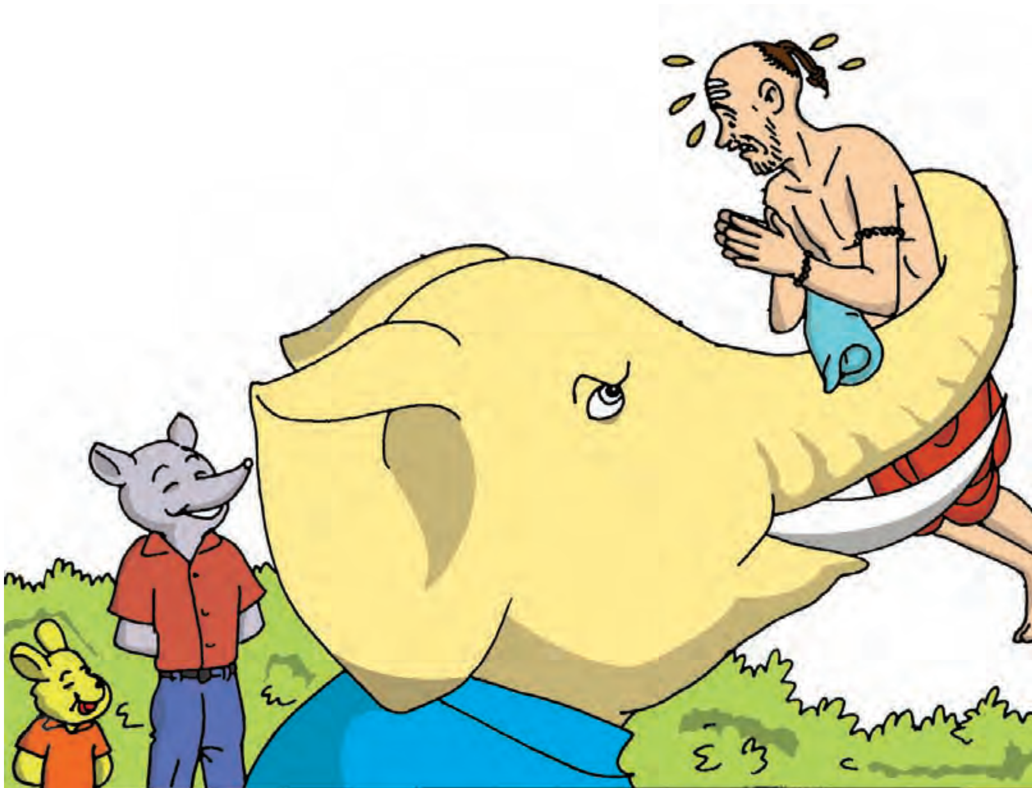

Swinging his trunk left right, Fatty asked, "What song are you singing, Kalu?"

Seeing the elephant's trunk wagging, Kalu Jackal thought that his magical words have started affecting.

Kalu boastfully said, "Fatty, these were my magical words. Now you are under my spell. Do as I tell you."

Seeing Kalu's attitude, Fatty got angry. In order to teach him a lesson Fatty rolled his trunk around the jackal and lifted him up in the air.

"Now tell me Kalu, who is in whose control? What happened to your magical words? Recite some more if you know. In a short while I will make you see stars in the day."

Hanging on to the elephant's trunk, Kalu was petrified. He could not understand how did the magical words not affect the elephant.

He thought it wisest to ask forgiveness. He apologised to Fatty.

"I can only forgive you on one condition. Tell me from whom did you learn this superstition."

"Hold on, I will tell you. First, bring me down."

Bringing him on the ground. Fatty freed Kalu Jackal.

Then the jackal told him how Lampat Baba gave him these magical words to recite.

Fatty said, "Let us go to that sly imposter. It is important to teach him a lesson."

Fatty made Cheeku sit on his back. Kalu led them and stopped near a hut.

Lampat Baba was sitting inside with ashes burning in front of him.

Seeing Kalu with Fatty, he understood what was about to happen.

He tried running away from there but Fatty was quick to extend his trunk and roll it around him.

Fatty asked Kalu, "Was he the same baba who taught you the magical words?"

"Yes, Fatty brother, he is the same one."

With his truth coming out Lampat thought it wiser to tell the fact. By then other animals too arrived.

Lampat said, "Fatty, please forgive me. Actually, there are no magical words. They are only there to scare superstitious people. I have seen that many such people get carried away by such things and come in our trap."

Interrupting him Cheeku said, "You have again started scaring such people and looting them."

"Ones like us thrive on the foolishness of such people. By mistake Kalu used these words on a sensible and literate Fatty and got caught."

"So now will you stop it or...." Fatty asked looking sharp at him.

"Now I promise I will never do this thing again. Forgive me this time. I will work hard to earn," Lampat pleaded with folded hands.

Fatty left Lampat warning him not to practise such things again. Lampat agreed.

Animals of Champakvan were happy too seeing Lampat promising to improve.

Cheeku again climbed Fatty's back and everyone proceeded towards their homes. Kalu Jackal and Lampat fled in shame. ●

Belief in Shani Dev

by Parshish

GONU MONKEY was shocked reading the newspaper early in the morning. Today people were not only busy cleaning their houses but its surrounding areas too along with the drains.

"After all, what is the matter?" Gonu called out Lombu Camel and asked, "Tell me Lombu, why all are busy in cleaning the whole area? Has the government declared today as a Cleanliness Day?"

"Er...no," Lombu replied, "Didn't you read the newspaper today?"

"I did see."

"Have not you seen the forecast colomn?"

"I do not see that at all," Gonu Monkey said assuredly. I do not follow the astrologers words that all are sons of god. I earn through hard work and...."

"Oh, Gonu brother, read the forecast sometimes. It is written in the newspaper that Shani Dev does not like filth. If we keep our house clean, Shani Dev does not cast a bad eye on us and prosperity will rain in our homes."

Cleaning the cobweb on his door Lombu Camel said, "Just look now, how my house is shining."

"Good, even in the name of Shani, you have at least cleansed your house," Gonu smiled. "It seems other evils will also finish when some planet will wish. Is not it?"

"Not just that. There are other virtues in Shani Dev. He loves mustard oil and black sesame. It is auspicious wearing black clothes on Saturday. I have decided that from today I will wear black clothes and also will buy lots of mustard oil from the market today," Lombu was excited.

Gonu gave a sorry look and again resumed reading the newspaper.

That very night it rained heavily. Lombu's roof fell down with the rain.

"Is somebody there? Brother Gonu.... help, I am gone."

"What happened, Lombu? Has prosperity through the ceiling?" Gonu asked innocently.

"Don't joke," Lombu made a face and said, "why should you blame Shani Dev for it? What kind of friend are you? Help me." Lombu saved himself with the help of Gonu.

The next day, Gonu was heard crying loudly when he came out in the afternoon. Kalu Buffalo, Monu Goat, Kallu Donkey, Lombu Camel were all coming dressed as ghosts in black clothes constantly being flogged by Jumbo Inspector.

"What happened, Inspector?" Why are you flogging them so mercilessly?"

"What should I do otherwise? Should I worship them? They are all first class black marketeers. I have found hundreds of mustard oil cans from their homes."

"Really?" Gonu smiled and said, "This is not black marketing. Leave them. I take their responsibility. They are actually the worshippers of Shani Dev that is superstitious," Gonu somehow managed to get them free.

Lombu said, "You are just tall. You do not have brains. If you come in the talks of Shani and Rahu, you will be seen in jail soon. The forecasters told you and you believed.

"In spite of being educated don't you know that the whole universe is made of small and big stars. Like earth and moon Shani too is a planet. That day is not far when the truth about all the planets will be known to all. Do yoy get it? Wait a little more."

"Understood," holding his ears Kallu Donkey said. "Does not matter if people call me a donkey."

"Well, thanks to your Shani Dev that he has got our jungle cleansed at least. Now small little diseases will not spread. Hard work will pay."

Lombu was scratching his ears.

Ghost of Pipal

THERE WAS a huge pipal tree on a desolate path on the periphery of Chandanvan.

One day, Chinki Vixen was going to the town. She was passing by the pipal tree when she heard someone breaking out with a peel of loud laughter, ha... ha... ha...

by Rajiv Saxena

Chinki was frightened with the loud chuckle and stopped there itself. Her words stammered, "wh....who?"

"I am the Pipal Ghost. Look Chinki, if you do not please me, you will fall ill." Hearing her name and the threatening of falling ill from the Pipal Ghost, Chinki was terrified. Gathering some courage, she said.

"But how can I make you happy?"

"You will have to fetch for me fresh fruits everyday from the jungle and do not tell anyone about it."

"Ok, I will do as you tell me but do not make me fall ill," Chinki said.

Poor Chinki would bring fresh fruits from trees everyday and keeping them in a tray, offer them to the tree. The fruits would immediately vanish. With fear Chinki would not turn back and look for once.

For many days Chinki kept bringing fresh fruits for the Pipal Ghost.

One day, Cheeku Rabbit was going to the market when he too heard the same peel of laughter. Ha... ha... ha... Cheeku stopped instantly.

Without any kind of fear he asked, "Who are you? Why are you laughing like this?"

"You fool, don't you know? I am the ghost of pipal. You must daily offer me some carrots with a rupee. If you don't follow my instructions, you will fall ill."

"Ok, I will do as you tell me."

Cheeku realised that the sound of the ghost was familiar. He suspected some foul play. He glanced at the pipal but could not see anyone.

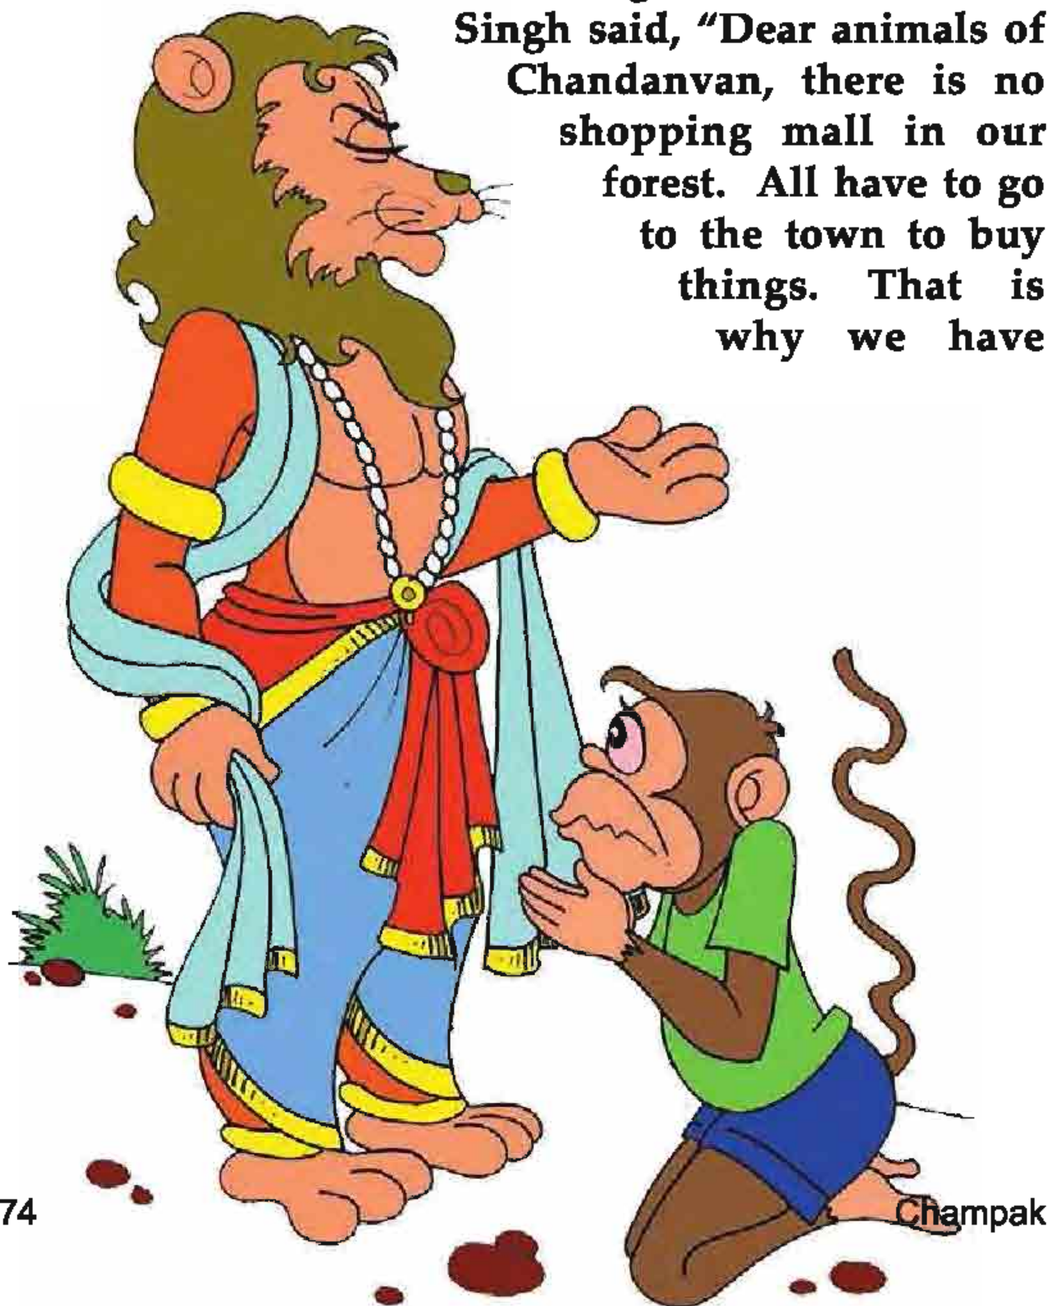

He thought, 'Is there a cheater in the garb of the ghost here? I must tell to King Sher Singh.'

Cheeku quickly reached the king's palace and told him about the ghost of pipal. Hearing this, Sher Singh thought for a while. Then said, "I have been informed by other animals too about this ghost of pipal. But you do not worry. The ghost will soon be out."

One day, King Sher Singh asked all animals of Chandanvan to collect and reached the pipal tree. He had got Cheetu and Neetu Jackal along. Cheetu was carrying a big size axes with him.

Reaching near the tree Sher Singh said, "Dear animals of Chandanvan, there is no shopping mall in our forest. All have to go to the town to buy things. That is why we have decided that we must build a mall by cutting this tree."

"But Your Majesty, there is a ghost in the pipal tree," Chinki Vixen said.

"Do not worry. The ghost will come out. Hurry up Cheetu and Neetu. Mow down the tree right now."

As Cheetu and Neetu started cutting the tree there was a sudden hustle bustle in the leaves. Meeku Monkey hiding in the leaves of pipal tree, jumped down with a thud and fell on the feet of the king.

"Here comes the ghost of pipal," the king smiled and said.

Meeku said to Sher Singh, "Your Majesty, please forgive me. I was the one fooling animals by posing as the ghost."

"I knew it. In fact, Heru Parrot living on the tree told me the whole story. Heru is our spy."

"So Meeku, is it you? I was fooled," Chinki felt upset.

Meeku was sent to Chandanvan jail. The secret of the Pipal Ghost was out. The tree was saved from getting cut and the animals of Chandanvan too were made safe from Meeku's mischief. ●

Owl in a Drought

by Dr. Ajay Anuragi

THE DARK clouds of draught were hovering over the lush green jungle of famous Sariska jungle. This year till June, it did not rain on even a single day. The month of July and August also passed by without any rains. The small insects and animals of the jungle were desperately looking up towards the sky for rains. The heat wave condition was practically roasting flora and fauna in the jungle. There was no single patch of cloud seen in the sky. As the bad luck would have it, even the month October and November passed by without a single drop of rain.

Last year too, it rained only for 2-3 days and later it did not rain at all. The year prior to that was with very scanty rainfall. Three consecutive years without any rain had caused serious drought like conditions in the jungle. Green grass and valuable flora were drying up fast. Small plants had already dried up. But greenery was left with because of mature trees. But the little greenery was not sufficient to keep the entire jungle green.

The drought had also caused serious food shortage for all the animals of the jungle. The animals who subsisted on the vegetation, had almost reached on the verge of death without food.

Fed up with the shortage of food and water, some of the animals had decided to leave the jungle in search of greener pastures elsewhere.

The animals were clueless about how to fight the life threaten drought. Some animals thought of consulting the astrologer jackal. They thought probably the Jackal could suggest them with some solution.

Mona Fox said, "Yes, yes, this is a right approach. The astrologer jackal has solutions to all the problems. He can suggest us way out get rid of this problem of drought.

Lakhan Hyena said, "The astrologer has no match. He is very intelligent. Once somebody stole money from our house. He only told me that it was some elephant who lived in the eastern direction. He had also said that the elephant had a fair skin and he had dug up a pit in his house to hide the stolen money. When we went to his house, we found a freshly dug up pit, which was covered with dried leaves. When we unearthed the pit, we found our stolen money."

All the animals, who were listening to real life story, were surprised with their eyes wide open.

Mona Fox narrated his story and said, "Once my uncle's son had gone missing. We looked everywhere for him but he was found nowhere. We then approached the astrologer jackal. He read the palm and suggested to us in which jungle, under which tree we would find the missing kid. Later, when my uncle went there with the police, he found his son."

The second real life experience reconfirmed their faith in the astrologer jackal.

They thought that the jackal would surely have the solution to get rid of the drought and all the animals in search of finding a solution for drought, went to the astrologer jackal. When they reached at the astrologer jackal's house, they found him seated on a high pedestal. He was clad in red robes. There was chain made up of rudraksha beads around his neck. Many animals were sitting in front of the jackal with their folded hands and heads bowed down.

The jackal was in the process of calling the animals one by one and listened to their problems carefully. Later, after pondering over their problems, he suggested solution to them.

Slowly, the animals were taking their turns to consult the jackal. Lakhan Hyena and Mona Fox took their seats. Rest of the animals were through with consultations with the jackal. Once they had left, the astrologer jackal gestured at them to come closer.

Both of them hesitantly went close to the jackal. Lakhan was gripped with fear in his heart, which made his throat dry and made him speechless.

Mona Fox said, "Our jungle is facing drought for the past 3 years. All the flora and fauna had dried up for the want of water. Gradually, all the animals are perishing as there is no water and food in the jungle. Please show us the way out. We have come to you with great hope."

The astrologer jackal took a deep breath, closed his eyes and started thinking. He opened his eyes after 2 minutes and said, "I found the reason behind your problem."

The eyes of Mona Fox and Lakhan Hyena lit up with happiness. They instantly said together, "What is the cause of our entire problem. We will do whatever you say."

The jackal said, "An owl has come to your jungle for the past 3 years. He is a bad omen for everybody. Your jungle is facing the drought only because of this owl in your jungle."

The jackal further said, "If you can drive away this owl from your jungle, the drought will be over. Wherever this owl goes, he brings in the same situation, which is being faced by you."

Mona Fox asked, "But what is the connection between an owl in the jungle and the drought? Can an owl prevent the clouds to shower rains?"

The astrologer jackal with redness in eyes said, "If you do not believe me then you can leave this place. There is no need of you being here at this pious place."

Lakhan Hyena said, "Sir, you please do not get angry. Forget about Mona. Sometimes he does not talk sense."

The astrologer jackal said, "This young fellow, what does he think of himself?"

Lakhan Hyena tried to handle the situation said, "Sir, he does not know your powers, otherwise he would not have had any doubts. Please let us know a way out to get rid of drought conditions in our jungle."

The astrologer jackal tried to control his displeasure and said, "There is only one solution to your problem. If you kill the owl and bury him in the dried pond, you will have the rain in your jungle within a week."

Mona Fox said, "Killing the owl will amount to animal slaughter. What is the benefit of such animal slaughter?"

The astrologer jackal said, "Then face the deadly drought condition. If you do not kill the owl, all the animals would die one by one because of hunger and thirst."

Lakhan Hyena and Mona Fox became thoughtless. They returned and told everything to their friends in the jungle. The solution was not palatable to everybody in the jungle.

They sent Mona and Lakhan back to the astrologer jackal for seeking an alternative easy solution to their problem.

The astrologer jackal said in clear words, "If you want to make your jungle drought free, then you have to drive away the owl from the jungle. When you kill and bury him in the dried pond, the Rain God will be pleased and you will get rains within one week."

Mona Fox asked, "Is there any easy solution for our problem?"

The astrologer jackal paused and said after contemplation, "If you want to save yourself from animal slaughter, then you have to drive away the owl and his family from the jungle. You have to smash his house and bury it in the dried pond."

Lakhan Hyena and Mona Fox returned to the jungle with other animals. They all started searching for the owl and his family, but they did not find them anywhere.

They searched every inch of the jungle but they all failed in their mission.

Mona Fox was clueless where the owl had gone. Worried Lakhan Hyena too sat down and felt helpless.

Then, one day, Champa Bat informed, "If you keep searching for the owl during daytime, you will never find him. He can be searched only at night."

Lakhan Hyena said, "Why so?"

Champa said, "Because the owl cannot see during daytime. He can see things clearly only at night."

Lakhan Hyena said, "Then we will find him tonight."

Champa said, "To find him at night too will be difficult, because he will see us and we will not able to see him at night time. He is a very clever bird."

Mona Fox said, "But if he is clever, remember that he is foolish as well."

They planned their operation and all the animals with their joint efforts caught the owl and his family.

Poor owl started crying, "What is my fault? Why do you want to kill me and my family?"

Nobody listened to him. They smashed and set his house on fire. They took his family for killing, in front of the king and to make their jungle drought free.

When the owl pleaded a lot to be spared, the king ordered him to leave the jungle with his family forever.

They had already burnt his house. Shivering in cold night the owl family left the jungle. They flew a long distance and when they were tired, they slept on a tree to rest.

In the morning when they woke up, they found a river was flowing down below. There was no drought in the new place. The owl was delighted to find the new place much better place than the jungle they had left at night. There was plenty of water and food at the new place. Soon, he built a nice house and started living comfortably with his family.

On the other hand, the jungle where the owl lived, did not get any respite from drought condition. .Whatever little water had left in the pond also dried up.

The animals in the jungle suffered serious dehydration and started dying.

Lakhan Hyena and Mona Fox went to the astrologer jackal. They found the astrologer jackal was completely dehydrated and was on the verge of dying.

He said to Mona Fox and Lakhan Hyena, "I have committed a great sin and got the owl driven away from the jungle. The result of my sin has aggravated the drought condition in the jungle. You must get the owl and his family back to the jungle," and the astrologer jackal breathed his last.

Mona Fox and Lakhan Hyena covered a long distance in search of owl and his family. But they failed to find them anywhere. At last, the entire jungle was destroyed. Gradually, all the animals died because of dehydration and shortage of food. Later, it rained in the jungle after one year which made the jungle lush green. But incidentally, none of the inhabitants of the jungle had survived the drought.

One day, the owl came flying visiting his old jungle which was totally empty. He felt very sad to find not a single animal had survived in the jungle. He decided to settle down once again in his motherland and later he ruled the jungle for a very long time. ●
